Part 2

A FEW IDEAS;

BEING

HINTS

TO ALL

WOULD-BE WHIPS.

As for danger and pleasure, they must be combin'd;
You all know I mean in an Englishman's mind;
For they are the lads both for hunting and driving:
They think not of fear when for eminence striving:
To follow the hounds, and to touch four-in-hand,
Now find me their fellows;—if you do, I'll be d—d!

BEN TALLY HO!

LONDON:

PUBLISHED BY THOMAS M'LEAN, 26, HAYMARKET.

1827.

Ex Libris
JOHN AND MARTHA DANIELS

GOING IN FIRST RATE STYLE.

W.ᵐ Alken. Del.ᵗ

I have an IDEA it's ten to one but we are down now ____ but I'll take nine to three that the Horses all go over.

London, Published by Tho.ˢ M.ᶜ Lean, 26 Haymarket, 1827

A CURRICLE MATCH.

W. Alken. Del.

I have an IDEA my Lord that nothing but time or a stone wall will stop them and I'll bet a cool hundred that Frank will not head them for the next mile.

London, Published by Thos. M.c Lean, 26 Haymarket, 1822

THE PASSAGE OF A CAB.

H. Alken Del.

I saw Captain I have an IDEA we have run foul of several things in our passage

London Published by Thos. M.Lean 26 Haymarket 1827.

THE REMAINS OF A STANHOPE

I saw my dear fellow that you in IDEA you can make this thing capable of progression

GETTING A TEAM TOGETHER

I have an IDEA that I have got them rather too much together now

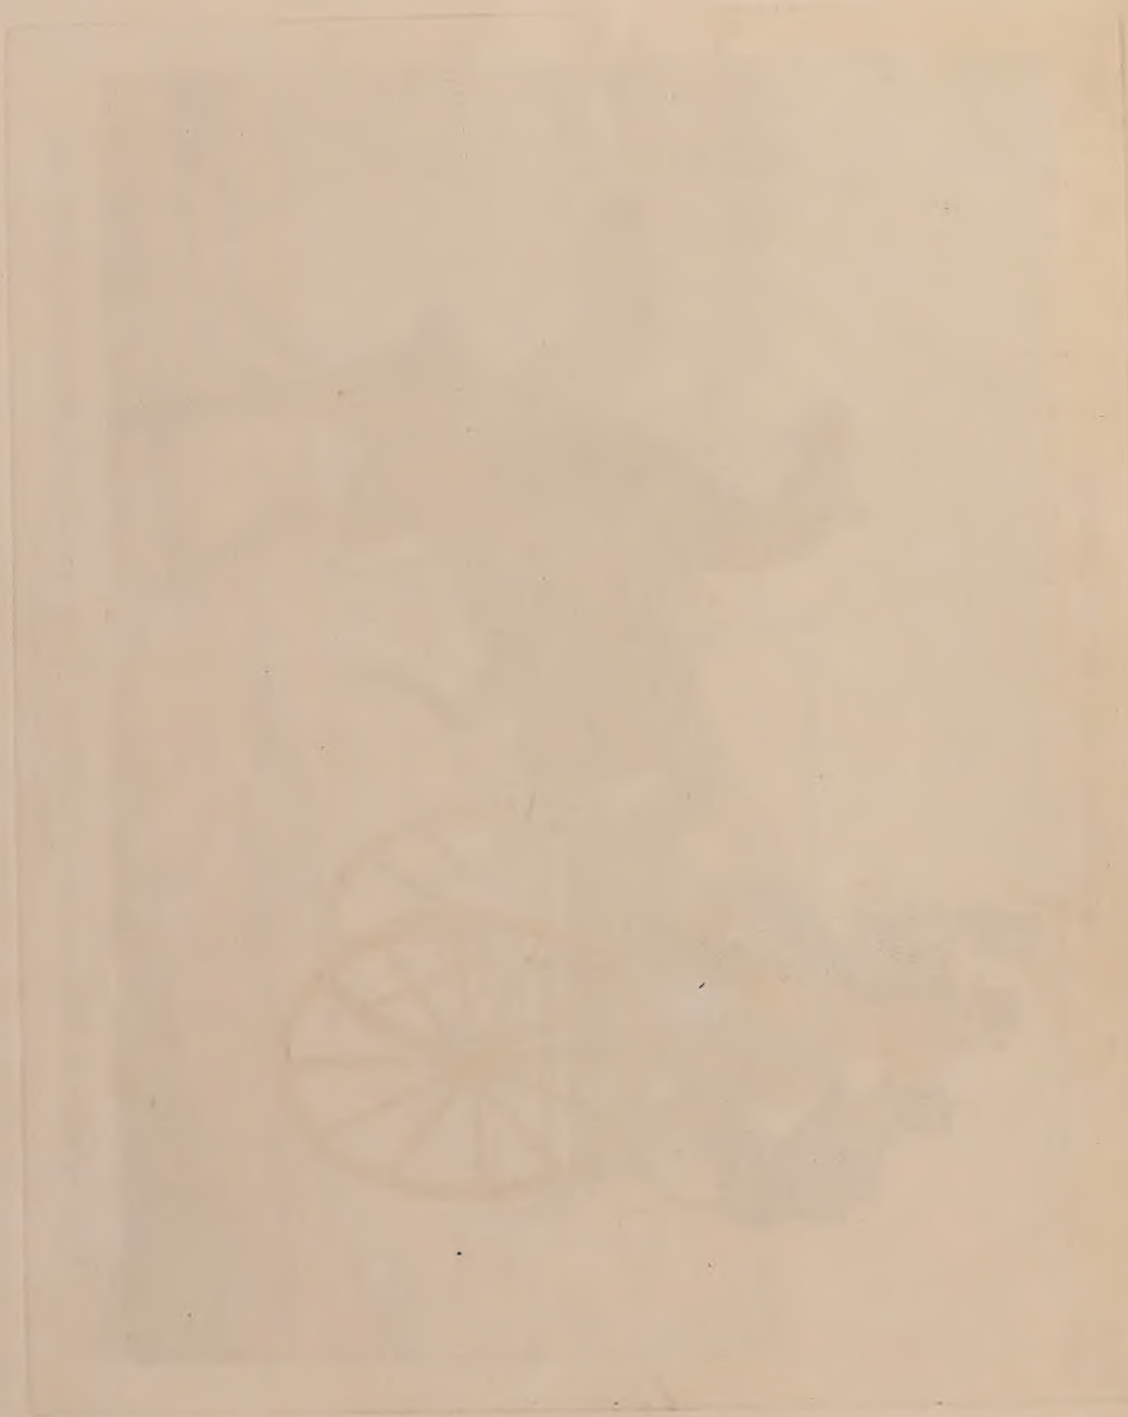
Published by Thos. M'Lean 26 Haymarket

A TANDEM NOT QUITE RIGHT.

H. Alken Del.t

I say my dear Sir, have you not an IDEA that there is considerable danger in the present case?

London Published by The Art Loan 26 Haymarket 1827



A 220